

Free-Workshops on Inclusive Education-Fall 2017

For early childcare and 4410 Preschool teachers & assistants, SEIT teachers, Related Service clinicians and administrators

Presenter- Susan Cuoccio MS Ed., parent trainer, educator and college lecturer encompassing early childhood, special education and children on the autism spectrum. (Certificate of attendance will be provided to each participant)

November 28th NEW! (A) (Registration deadline is November 27th)

8:30 - 11:30- Measuring What Matters-Observation and Data Collection in the Classroom- Addresses various methods of documenting what is observed before and after an intervention.

December 8th (B) (Registration deadline is December 6th)

8:30 - 11:30- Helping Early Childhood Educators Work With Children's Challenging Behaviors- Strategies to focus on fostering and strengthening children's positive interactions in order to minimize distracting behaviors.

December 14th NEW! (C) (Registration deadline is December 12th)

8:30 - 11:30- Techniques for Teaching Educational Concepts- This workshop will address and explain various ways to teach basic skills using methods such as: task analysis, chaining, scaffolding and others.

Sponsor & Location of Workshops

Brooklyn Early Childhood Direction Center (ECDC)

ADAPT Community Network (formerly UCP of NYC)

160 Lawrence Avenue

Brooklyn, NY 11230 (Between Ocean Parkway & Seton Place)

(718) 437-3794 Ext. 190

Pre-registration is required for each workshop.

Email Pre-registration- Type Registration in subject; send to brooklynecdc@adaptcommunitynetwork.org. Include: registrant's full name, agency, job title and preferred workshop(s) session letter(s).

Phone Pre-registration- call Karen Samet @ (718) 907-3190.

Directions: Trains: B, Q to Newkirk Ave, or F to 18th Ave. Bus: B-8 to East 2nd/Seton Place or McDonald Ave (depending on the direction you are traveling).

ADAPT [we change]
COMMUNITY NETWORK